

Patrol in Uruguay kills guerrilla in house search

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP)—A Tupamaro guerrilla was shot to death when he tried to avoid capture by a military patrol searching houses in a residential district, authorities said yesterday.

He was the 22nd Tupamaro reported killed by military and police units since the government declared internal war against the leftist guerrillas in mid-April. The shooting occurred Friday.